Each student must complete the following “student-in-good-standing form” in order to participate in extra-curricular activities or school programs such as sports or band trips. Receiving signatures starts on the date indicated below in preparation for the upcoming season. You must get your form signed before each activity outlined below by each of your teachers, the coach, and Ms. Cronin. During the actual season, signatures for the week means you can play in the tournament. Not having the signatures will result in you being benched and supporting your team from the sidelines.

What Does “In Good Standing” Mean?

Our students represent the school and must exemplify the attitudes, leadership and behavioural expectations for which the school stands. Participation in extra-curricular activities is a privilege and students who wish to participate must be in-good-standing at the school.

To be in-good-standing means that you must have fulfilled all the following requirements:

- a) Your teachers are satisfied that your assignments are up to date and that you are contributing to the classroom environment in a positive manner (meaning no behavioral concerns).
- b) Ms. Cronin is satisfied that you have been a contributing member of the school community and you have not been sent to the office for behavioral concerns (Ms. Cronin may consult with any appropriate staff).

STUDENT AND PARENT/GUARDIAN CONSENT

Student

I understand the expectations of the Student In-Good-Standing Form. This means I will be keeping up with my school work and that my behavior throughout the week in all classes, during breaks (recess/locker breaks and lunch) will reflect the expectations at RancheView School... treating myself, others and the environment with kindness and respect. I understand that behaviorally, if I cannot be a leader at school by showing kindness and respect, the privilege of being on a sports team, participating in a tournament and/or going on an overnight band field trip may be revoked.
